

Map produced by the Friends of Scott Creek Conservation Park

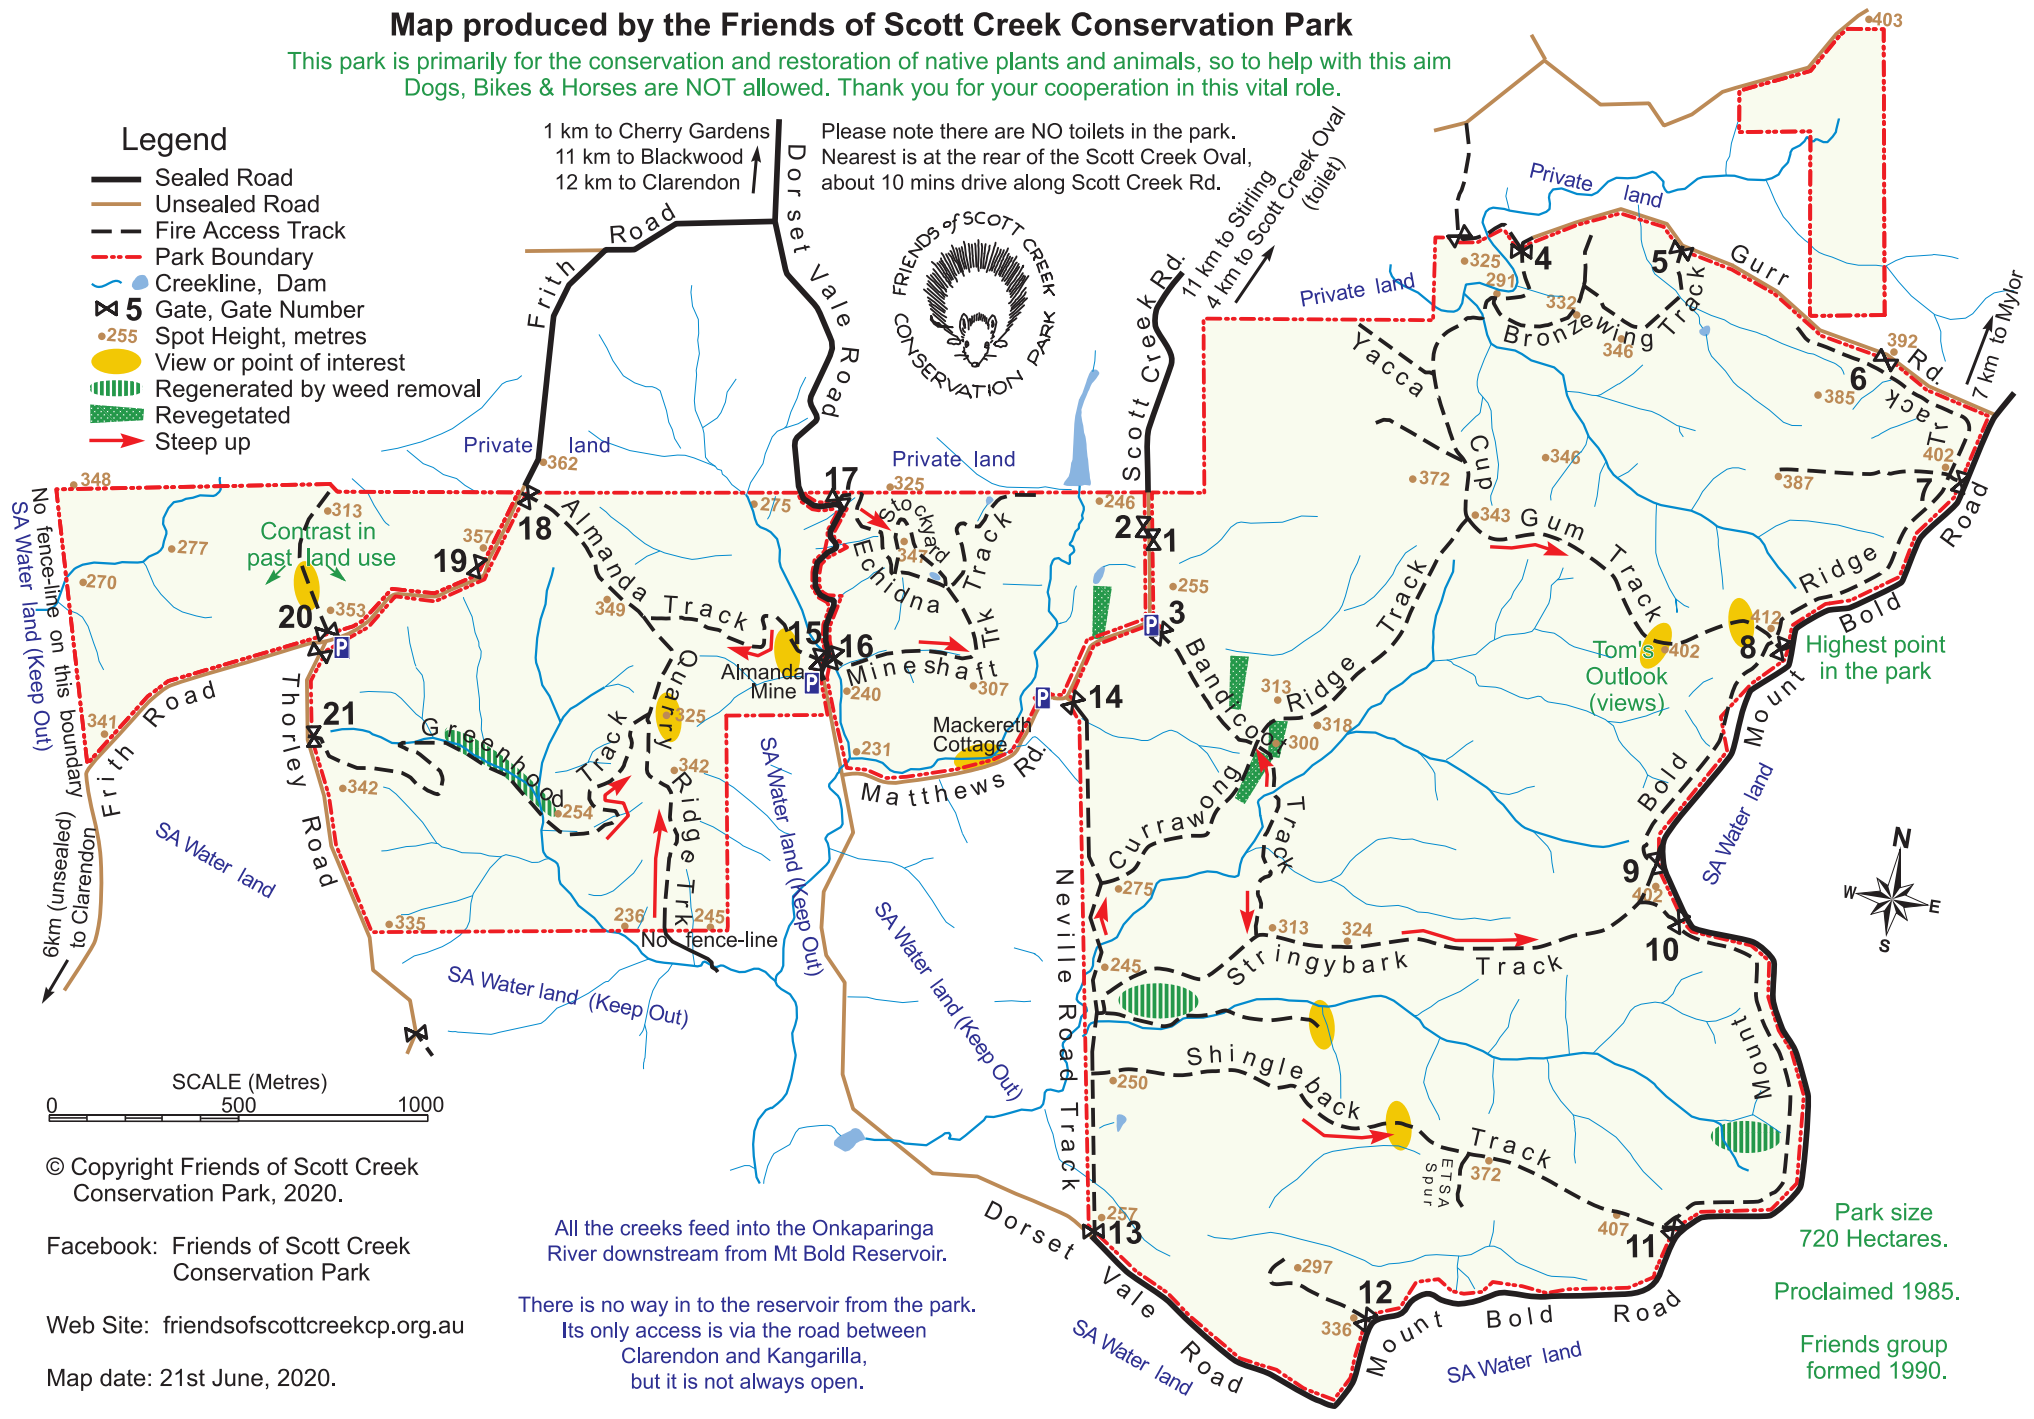

This park is primarily for the conservation and restoration of native plants and animals, so to help with this aim Dogs, Bikes & Horses are NOT allowed. Thank you for your cooperation in this vital role.

Legend

- Sealed Road
- Unsealed Road
- Fire Access Track
- Park Boundary
- Creekline, Dam
- Gate, Gate Number
- Spot Height, metres
- View or point of interest
- Regenerated by weed removal
- Revegetated
- Steep up

1 km to Cherry Gardens
11 km to Blackwood
12 km to Clarendon

Please note there are NO toilets in the park.
Nearest is at the rear of the Scott Creek Oval,
about 10 mins drive along Scott Creek Rd.

SCALE (Metres)
0 500 1000

© Copyright Friends of Scott Creek Conservation Park, 2020.

Facebook: Friends of Scott Creek Conservation Park

Web Site: friendsofscottcreekcp.org.au

Map date: 21st June, 2020.

All the creeks feed into the Onkaparinga River downstream from Mt Bold Reservoir.

There is no way in to the reservoir from the park. Its only access is via the road between Clarendon and Kangarilla, but it is not always open.

Park size 720 Hectares.

Proclaimed 1985.

Friends group formed 1990.